REMARKS

Defendant appeared, in custody, with counsel, and with the assistance of federally certified Spanish interpreter, Natalia Rivera. Defendant acknowledged to the Court that his true and correct name is YANCARLOS ARREDONDO-MENDOZA.

Defendant was advised of his rights and the allegations contained in the Complaint.

Based on information provided in the Financial Affidavit, the Court appointed the Federal Defenders to represent Defendant in this matter.

Government has filed a motion for detention.

Defendant waived preliminary and detention hearings at this time but reserved the right to revisit issue of detention should circumstances change.

The Court ordered:

1. Motion for detention granted.
2. Oral order issued confirming the Government's disclosure obligations under the Due Process Protections Act and the possible consequences of violation of said order (Government has standing objection to language as overbroad).
3. Status hearing set on February 2, 2022, at 1:30 p.m.
4. Defendant shall be detained by the U. S. Marshal until further order of the Court.
